

CWF to Entertain At "Senior" Home

Picking a "Queen for a Day" will be highlight of a visit to senior citizens at the California Christian Home, San Gabriel, for the women of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church of Torrance.

They plan to leave the church at 10 a.m. Thursday and return by 2 p.m.

Gifts of seedless jams and jellies, which have been collected at September and October CWF meetings, will be presented during the visit.

The Haiti Group, under leadership of Mrs. Fred Schweigert, has selected useful gifts to be presented to the "Queen."

The Argentina Group, under leadership of Mrs. Rodney Puckett, has planned a quiz, with shiny new pennies as prizes. Other groups have planned skits for the entertainment of the men and women at the home.

Arrangements for the visit were made by Mrs. Ray Stewart, director of service of the CWF.

At the October meeting of CWF, D. E. Ebricht, director of extension services of "Meals for Millions," told the women of the foundation's work.

He stated that for each three cents received, the foundation donates a meal of multi-purpose food to an accredited relief agency. These meals are sent to needy people all over the world, as well as here in the United States.

Those interested in attending the dance or in the prizes contact Mrs. Shirley Thurman OS 9-6233.

All proceeds go to the Association's building fund to build an activity and training center for this area.

16 LWV Groups Ask Changes in Supervisor Roles

Following a two-year study of Los Angeles County government, the League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Peninsula this week joined 15 other Leagues of the Los Angeles County Council in proposing changes in the Los Angeles County Charter which would result in increasing membership of the Board of Supervisors from 5 to 11.

Provisions for separation of policy-making, legislative powers within county government from those of administration are also being sought.

Administrative authority would be removed from the province of the Board of Supervisors in order that the board might concentrate on policy-making and legislative functions under the league proposal.

Under the proposal, administrative duties would be handled by an administrative offices.
